New York, July 26.—Baron Komura, the Japanese peace plenipotentiary, arrived on the fast train from Chicago, over the Pensylvania road at 9:35 o'clock today.

At the Jersey City station to greet him were about 40 Japanese merchants. There was no demonstration at Jersey City, but when the ferryboat reached the fot of Twenty-third street, this city, a hundred or more Japanese greeted the baron and his suite with cheers while a band played the Japanese national air.

BARON KOMURA.

The baron, with Consul General Uchida, and two of his suite, entered a carriage and were driven to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel. H. W. Dennison, an American, who is attached to the Japanese foreign office, and who has been in Japan for 35 years, is with the party. Mr. Dennison says he has no official capacity with the peace delegation. The party was met at Philadelphia by Consul General Uchida. Minister Takahira remained in this city. Mr. Sato, who is the chief of staff, said to an Associated Press representative that there was no program prepared for the baron, and he did not know what would be done from day to day until he had met Minister Takahira. Mr. Sato said it would not be necessary for any of the party to go to Washington since the president is at Oyster Bay, and they would await the president's pleasure as to their plans.

"The baron will rest a few days," said Mr. Sato, "his journey having been quite an extended one. He is in good health but needs a little rest after traveling so far. We have traveled every day since we landed in this country, arriving in cities early in the day and getting out in the evening. We stopped not longer than six hours at any place."

The party has been traveling for 17 days.

Cotton Broker Commits Suicide.

New York, July 26.—Otto Bernheimer, a member of Bernheimer & Walter, cotton brokers of this city and reputed to be wealthy, committed suicide today in his apartments at the Hotel Sevilla. Bernheimer was found lying in front of a full length mirror and dying from a bullet wound in the temple. He left no explanation of his act and his two brothers say that he had every reason to wish to live so far as they knew. Bernheimer was 36 years of age.

Autos Kill Many Chicagoans.

Chicago, July 25.—The Tribune today says that seven persons killed and 54 injured is the record made this year so far by automobilists in Chicago. Although the year is but little more than half over, the figures show an appalling increase over last year's record of one killed and 72 injured.

Toadstools Kill Four People.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 26.—Toadstools, mixed with mushrooms, and eaten at a birthday party, has caused the death of four of the six members of the family of Joseph Franzor, a farmer, who resided near Landiaville, N. J. The dead are Joseph Franzer, his wife and two daughters. At a birthday dinner in honor of one of the young girls mushrooms was one of the dishes served and fungi were gotten from nearby woods. The mother, supposing they were mushrooms, added them to the mushrooms taken from their own farm.

TAFT PARTY IN JAPAN.

Americans Given a Royal Welcome by Mikado's People.

Yokohama, July 26.—Secretary of War Taft and party received a demonstrative welcome to Japan, the principal buildings, streets and wharves of this city and the shipping in the harbor being gaily decorated. A noisy display of daylight fireworks along the streets fronting the harbor anounced the arrival of the steamship Manchuria at the quarantine grounds as 7 o'clock this mornig and continued until the vessel was docked.

Lloyd C. Griscom, the American minister, the attaches of the legation and Consul General H. B. Miller, of New Chwang, together with representatives of the Japanese imeprial household, foreign officers, war department and the Asiatic society then board the Manchuria and extended formal greetings to Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt, who held an informal reception upon the deck. The party was then driven to the railroad station through the crowded streets and boarding a special train departed for Tokio at 10 a. m., amid the cheers of the assembled multitude.

Upon the arrival at Tokio, Secretary Taft and his personal staff were taken to Shiba, where a detached palace was provided for their accommodation. Miss Roosevelt, accompanied Minister Griscom to the American legation. The voyage was uneventful and the party arrived well.

QUIET DAY AT SAGAMORE HILL.

No Official Visitors Received by President Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 26.—This was one of the quietest week days the president has had since his arrival at Sagamore Hill for the summer.

Comparatively little executive business was brought to his attention, ad no official visitors at all were received. Although Secretary Root is not in Washington, the affairs of the department of state are now under his direction and all matters relating to that departmet are being referred by the president to him. They include the arrangement for the formal reception of the Russian and Japanese peace envoys. When the details of these arrangements shall have worked out by the state department in connection with the navy department they will be communicated to the president for his approval.

The president practically has finished the preparation of the addresses he expects to deliver at Wilkesbarre, and Chautauqua, N. Y., on the 10th and 11th of Augusta respectively.

Husband Gets Wife's Fortune.

Chicago, July 26.—A dispatch to the Tribune from San Francisco, Cal., says that Judge Sayre, at Lakeport, yesterday handed down a decision giving the entire Floyd estate worth $1,000,000 to Milo S. Gorcence, husband of the late Mrs. Floyd. Gorcence was a conductor on a street car and his a handsome face and polished manner won the rich but eccentric Miss Floyd. She was 15 years older than he, but, despite family opposition, she married him and a year later she died, leaving him all her estate except the house where she lived. The will was contested by near relatives on the ground of the testators competency.

Two Children Burn to Death.

Pittsburg, July 26.—As a result of the explosion of a gasoline stove at the home of Levi Titus today, Harry and Meyer Titus, twins, aged 7 years, were burned to death and five other members of the family were seriously burned, two fatally.

AUTHORITIES ARE FIGHTING FEVER

New Orleans Official Trying To Subdue Yellow Jack.

STRICT SANITATION IS URGED

New Quarantines Are Being Put on. Fruit Vessels May Be Forced to Seek New Ports of Entry—News From Other Points on Situation.

New Orleans, July 26.—No arely reports of deaths from yellow fever were received at the board of health today. In today's mail was sent out a circular to every physician in the city urging the prompt report of all cases of fever, typhoid, malarial, yellow and otherwise, so that the appearance of new foci may be immediately established, screened and watched.

The doctors are also asked to surrender individual opinions they may have and to co-operate with the state and federal authorities in as rigid an application as posisble of the general screening of houses and cisterns and the prosecution of sanitary measures. Meantime the city board of health is today making up a careful record for the state board of all cases of sickness and of the deaths since the fever appeared.

Subscriptions are being taken to a fund of $100,000 for the maintenance of a detention hospital. Sanitation in the French market quarter where the disease incubated continues. That section is now probably in a more cleanly condition than it has been at any time since the war. The more rigid regulations which are to be put into effect to prevent further introduction of disease and by increasing the period of detention of ships from Central American ports and the Indies threatens temporarily to drive the fruit trade to Mobile, Galveston, Pensacola and other ports. The fruit companies are now considering a change of entry, fearing that their fruit will spoil if subjected to the increased detention.

New quarantines are being put on, but a number of towns still refuse to put up the bars.

The piney woods section of St. Tammany has refused to quarantine, and has extended a general invitation to New Orleans people to come there.

Twelve Cases; Eight Deaths.

Washington, July 26. A report received here today from Surgeon White of the public health and Marine hospital service, who is stationed at New Orleans and who, under instructions of the acting surgeon general is engaged in an effort to deetermine the exact condition with regard to yellow fever in that city says the city authorities concede 12 cases and eight deaths but he adds that there probably are many more cases. Those so far observed are of a virulent type. Surgeon Wasdin, stationed at Memphis, who rendered signal service during the epidemic at Ocean Springs, in 1897, has entered on a careful investigation of conditions along the gulf coast from Mobile to Pass Christia, Miss., and passed Assistant Surgeon Young has been ordered from Chicago to Jackson, Miss., to confer with the Missisippi health authorities relative to train inspection.

No Yellow Fever in Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., June 26.—Dr. Eugene Wasdin, surgeon of the Marine Hospital service, detailed by the government to make an inspection of the coast cities, arrived in Mobile last night and made an inspection of the conditions at Mobile. He had a further inspection this morning and stated emphatically to the Associated Press corrsepondent that Mobile had "nothing," meaning that there was no yellow fever here. He will leave for Scranton and other Mississippi coast towns this afternoon.

Dr. Wasdin stated that he had every confidence in Dr. Rhett Goode, local health officer, and if there was any fever that gentleman would report it.

Dr. Wasdin, in discussing the fever situation, said it was better to let the fact be known that there is fever in a city than to hide it.

Fever on Board Steamer.

Fort Morgan, Ala., July 26.—The steamer Columbia, which arrived here Sunday, was found to have suspicious fever on board and the crew was isolated. Since that time four cases of yellow fever have developed. No deaths have occurred.

The steamer and entire crew, including the sick, are now at Ship island quarantine station, 50 miles at sea.

Quarantine Officer Put Off Train.

Nashville, Tenn., July 26.—A Decatur, Ala., dispatch says that last night Quarantine Officer Lem Jones was ejected from a Southern railway train at Leighton, west of here, by Conductor Payne. The conductor claimed to be acting under instructions of the superintendent of the road. Jones arrived here this morning, paying his transportation. Blewett Wallace, who has charge of the state quarantine forces here, received orders from the Southern this morning giving all quarantine officers the right to ride on all trains.

PASSENGER RATE WAR ON.

The Price of a Ticket from New York to Chicago Is Reduced.

New York, July 26.—Railroad officials here express considerable concern over the passenger rate war which is now in progress between Chicago-New York lines.

Several of the roads already have put into effect a rate of $16 for first-class fare from Chicago to New York. One of the longer routes is charging $14, and further reductions are threatened. The trouble originated in demands made by the Michigan Central for a differential. The demand was considered by three arbitration commissioners a short time ago and was allowed with certain limitations. The Erie and the Grand Trunk, however, declined to accept the arbitration as final. The two roads insisted that the Michigan Central had no right to claim differential on through business in which the New York Central shared. The Erie in the streets declare that they would not object to allowing a differential to the Michigan Central on its own lines, but beyond that point they will concede nothing. As a result of the arbitrators, the Michigan Central put in a differential rate of $18 first-class passenger fare from Chicago to New York. The reduction was promptly met by three other lines, and it is intimated a first-class rate of $10 may soon be given.

Price of Cotton Goes Upward.

New Orleans, July 26.—The cotton market recorded new high level of prices for the season at noon the active positions being 17 to 20 points higher than yesterday's finals. When October sold at 11.25, an advanceof 19 points; December at 11.30, an advance of 20 points, and January at 11.32, an advance of 17 points. Bad crop reports and news of large areas of abandoned land because of overflowed valleys were the principal causes, together with the assurance that Manchester was again in the market and that prices of goods had been raised at Fall River. Excitement was intense about the ring and the outside public became heavily interested during the morning hours.

Looking for Would-Be Assassins.

Constantinople, July 26.—The commission which has been inquiring into the attempt on the life of the Sultan Friday last is believed to have obtained information indicating that it was a Turkish plot but as this would never be admitted, even if proved, the authorities are industriously creating the impression that the bomb outrage was the work of European anarchists.

American Sculptor Wins Honor.

New York, July 26.—The American sculptor, Waldo Storey, a native of Boston, has been given the commission for a statue of the late Sir William Vernon Harcourt, which is to be placed in the lobby of the House of Commons, says a dispatch from London. It will be the first statue by an American sculptor to find a place in the house of commons.

Second, the right of pasturage for deer belonging to Swedish Lapps in North Norway.

Third, that the transit trade between both countries shall be secured from unjustifiable obstructions.

Fourth, that the status of Sweden in respect to foreign powers as established by the treaty shall be clearly defined so that Sweden shall be completely freed from responsibility for Norway to other states.

The committee also regards an arbitration convention between Sweden and Norway as desirable, although it does not consider it an essential condition for the dissolution of the union.

The committee further proposes to authorize the goverment to raise a loan of $25,000,000 which can by a resolution of the riksdag, be made available for such readjustments and arrangements as may be necessitated by the new conditions.

Regarding eventual negotiations with Norway the comittee declares that whatever may be demanded for the welfare and dignity of Sweden as a condition of the repal of the act of union on the part of Sweden and the recognition of Norway must be examined and adhered to with rigor and determination.

FARMERS WILL MAKE THEIR OWN MEAT

Can Raise and Cure at Less Cost Than Buying Western Goods.

THE PRODUCTS ARE BETTER

The Farmers of This Section Are Becoming Wise and With Cold Storage Facilities Will Show Western Packers a Thing or Two in a Few Years.

There will be something doing in the pork raising line in Alachua county the coming season, if the reports of farmers from the various sections of the county are to be relied upon and the farmer will no longer be compelled to pay his grocer, or the man who "runs" him, enormous prices for meat for the twelve months following next December, at least.

The farmers of Alachua county, more strongly in some sections than in others, are waking up to their interests. They are beginning to realize that they can raise their own meats at a great deal less cost than buying bacon and are working to that end.

The introduction of cold storage in this county has accomplished a great deal in educating the farmer. He has discovered that meat placed on cold storage and afterward properly cured is not only better but a great deal cheaper than the meat that is raised and butchered in the West, sent to Chicago, "prepared," sent to the South and sold at about four to six profits before it reaches his larder.

The farmer is beginning to realize that he can produce his meat at home, butcher it and bring it to cold storage at a small cost, take it out and cure it, and save from 50 to 75 per cent of the amount he is compelled to pay in the stores and has better meat besides. The cold storage facilities of this city accommodated thousands of pounds last season, and the prospects are that the coming winter will double that amount. From present indications, at the progress the raising of meat is making, it will be necessary to increase the capacity within the next two years, notwithstanding there is a cold storage plant at Alachua.

These are modern times, and with the present advancement of the meat interests and the prospects for the future, the Western packers may need look for anything but a distressing decrease within the next few years.

MR. WALL WAS HERE.

Watchdog of the Treasury Pays Gainesville Friends a Visit.

Among the prominent visitors to Gainesville Wednesday was Hon. John P. Wall of Putnam Hall, representative in the Legislature from Putnam county, and who has become known throughout the State as the "Watchdog of the Treasury."

Mr. Wall is probably the best posted representative all-round in the House of Representatives. During his first time as representative from Putnam county, many years ago, he gained a reputation as an economist which stuck to him and which he continued to manifest at the session a few months ago closed.

Mr. Wall is well pleased with the progress of Gainesville, and, while he was a great advocate of the famous Buckman bill, claiming to be the founder of the principals upon which it was drawn, declares that he is glad Gainesville secured the University, because it was the most desirable candidate in the contest for several reasons. "I worked for the success of the Buckman bill with all my heart," he said, "because I believed it was a good bill, and I yet believe it. It was through no desire to abolish the East Florida Seminary or no other State school, except for the consolidation of the educational interests of Florida, because I believed this step was necessary, not only to the economy of the State, but to the benefit of the young men and young women of Florida."

In speaking of the attempt of certain parties to show the unconstitutionality of the Buckman bill, Mr. Wall stated that he considered that absurd. "I studied that bill carefully and weighed every point, not only risking my own judgment, but the judgment of learned lawyers, and I can say frankly that I believe the bill will stand, and in my opinion it's all foolishness to try to prove it unconstitutional at this time."

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Orange Trees.

An orange grove in full bearing is one of the most delightful sights the eye can witness. The trees are a beautiful shape if left as nature made them. The limbs come nearly to the ground, so close that an orange picker goes under the tree flat on his back and often cuts 100 oranges from the tree before he comes out. Oranges are never picked, but are cut off with shears having a spring between the handles. An orange that has no stem on it is considered a "cull" and is not packed by a first class packer.

A PAINTER'S DREAM.

Pope's Story of the Sleep Vision of Sir Godfrey Kneller.

I dreamed I was dead, said the painter. Before me I saw a door and a great number of people about it. As I drew nearer I could distinguish St. Peter by his keys with some other of the apostles. They were admitting the people as they came next to the door. As the first after my coming up approached for admittance St. Peter asked his name and then his religion. "I am a Roman Catholic," replied the spirit. "Go in then," says St. Peter, "and sit down in those seats on the right hand." The next was a Presbyterian. He was admitted, too, after the usual questions and ordered to sit down on the seat opposite the other.

My turn came next, and as I approached St. Peter very civilly asked me my name. I said it was Kneller. I had no sooner said so than St. Luke, who was standing just by, turned toward me and said, with a great deal of earnestness, "What, the famous Sir Godfrey Kneller of England?" "The very same, sir," says I, "at your service." On this St. Luke embraced me and made a great many compliments on the art we both of us had followed in this world and entered so far into the subject that he seemed almost to have forgotten the business for which I came thither. At last, however, he recollected himself and said: "I beg your pardon, Sir Godfrey. I was so much taken up with the pleasure of conversing with you. But, apropos, pray, sir, what religion may you be of?" "Why, truly, sir," says I, "I am of no religion." "Oh, sir," says he, "you will be so good then as to go in and take your seat where you please." —Pope.

SOUTHERN BELL FORCE IS READY

Will Shortly Begin Construction of Long Distance Line.

ARE NOW WAITING ON POLES

Some Delay Has Been Caused in Arrival of This Necessary Adjunct, and as Soon as They are Received Work Will Begin.

J. M. Goodwin, superintendent of construction of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, has arrived in the city with his "gang" and within the next day or two, as soon as poles can be secured, expects to begin work on the long-distance line between this city and Jacksonville.

Mr. Goodwin is one of the most experienced and most valued employes of the construction department of this great corporation. He has been for many years in its employ, working from the bottom up, and is regarded very highly by the management of the Southern Bell as a man who knows his business. He has a force of about 30 men here now and proposes at the earliest moment to begin operations.

There has been several delays in the matter of getting the work started on this long-distance line, principal among which has been the buying of the right-of-way and the securing of poles. The right-of-way has been purchased as far as Starke, however, and a contract has been let for poles. The first poles will not be delivered before the latter part of the present week, when the gang will at once begin the construction. It is calculated that by the time the construction department covers the right-of-way already secured, full arrangements will have been made to complete the work to Jacksonville, connecting with the outside world.

As has already been stated, the Southern Bell does not do things half way. They use only the best of materials and have a man regularly employed for no other duty than to inspect the poles as they are delivered. If these poles do not come up to the standard they are refused, as they are placed for lasting purposes. Nothing but copper wire of the best quality is used, and all other appurtenances are in proportion.

WILLEFORD ENTERTAINMENT.

Ice Cream Supper and Tableaux Presented for Church Benefit.

The people of Willeford participated in an ice cream supper and tableaux entertainment on the evening of Friday, the 21st inst., which was given for the benefit of the Sunday school, and which was largely attended and proved a great success, both financially and from a standpoint of attendance.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Thomas, after which several striking tableaux were rendered by the young ladies of the neighborhood.

A. G. Masters acted as stage manager, and proved to be most competent in that line.

In all the affair was quite a success, and those present had a big time.

High Springs Was Good.

The Gainesville junior baseball team, which visited High Springs Tuesday afternoon, are well pleased with the hospitable manner in which they were treated by the club of that town, as well as the citizens. Notwithstanding the fact that the Gainesville boys were victorious, the score being four to three, the visiting club was extended every courtesy possible, the refreshments even being free at every place in the city. Whenever a Gainesville boy appeared for a drink and attempted to pay for it the assurance was always given that "the bill is paid."

The High Springs boys expect to come to Gainesville for a return game soon and the junior club is anxious to give them a good time, which they will no doubt do.

Notwithstanding that the game was a junior one it was well played, and better than a great many league games if we are to judge by the score. It is said by those who witnessed it that the boys on both teams played some fast ball and deserve to be congratulated.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR

REGULATES THE LIVER, STOMACH, BOWELS, KIDNEYS.

The inventor of the famous "TERRELL SCRAPE," a man known wherever plows are sold and used, says:

"I have used MOZLEY'S LEMON ELIXIR for 10 or 12 years in my family for the stomach, liver and kidneys, and find it is the best medicine I have ever used. It is also a sure specific for pain in the back or under the shoulders. I have recommended it in numerous cases to my workmen, when sick and unable to work, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. H. D. TERRELL, President Atlanta Plow Co., Atlanta."

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

One Legged Dinner Party.

A certain gentleman, the possessor of a cork leg, living in one of the London suburbs annually gives a dinner to a dozen owners of a like substitute. In the center of the table are grouped four crutches, around which twine festoons of flowers; miniature legs in ivory compose the handles of the knives and forks, while the piece de resistance is invariably a magnificent turkey that has been deprived of a leg before being brought to table.

English Fish Laws.

Fish, because of its tendency rapidly to decompose, holds a peculiar position among foods. In England it is the subject of a special act of parliament. So long ago as 1638 men knew the evil consequences resulting from eating mackerel of uncertain post mortem age, so they passed an act providing that except during the hours of divine service this fish could be sold on Sunday. That act has never been repealed.

Making It Plain.

Sapleigh—Oh, I say, Miss Hammerton, why is it that you are always out when I call? Miss Hammerton—Because I'm foolish, I suppose. Sapleigh—I—er—beg pardon! Miss Hammerton—Well, you know the old saying, "A fool for luck."

Sleep.

If the muscles are not tired, there cannot be a full demand for sleep, unless, of course, the brain has been overworked. Healthy bodily exercise, carried to the point of rendering rest sweetly welcome, is one natural means of promoting sleep.

Won Over.

Lawyer—I'll be frank with you. You can't break your father's will. Client—I'll be frank with you. I can't pay you unless it can be broken. Lawyer—I'll go you one better. We'll break that will.—Cleveland Leader.

Never strike a man when he is down. Ten chances to one he will get up again.—Detroit News.

NEW YORK HARBOR.

Some of the Wonders of This Vessel Crowded Port.

To present to the mind an easily conjured picture of New York harbor one might make the comparison of the upturned right hand, with the long, straight forefinger for the lower stretch of the Hudson, with the thumb, joint turned out, standing for the bent East river and the palm of the hand representing upper New York bay. The three together make up the harbor of New York. As Hudson river shelters most of the north Atlantic liners while in port, so does East river harbor those that go to make up the truly foreign fleets. Here they are, pier after pier of them—the steamers that go to the far countries. Mind the roll—Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Peru, west coast of Africa, Australia, India, China, Japan! And hark again to the call of the ports—Rio Janeiro, Buenos Ayres, Valparaiso, St. Paul de Loanda, Cape Town, Tamatave, Sydney, Singapore, Hongkong, Yokohama! And the strange stuff of their cargoes! Rubber from the Amazon swamps—see the naked Indians tapping the trees and the slimy reptiles in the shadowy ooze; horn and tallow from the pampas—mark the centaur-like vaquero and his whirling riata; gold dust, ivory, palm oil from the west coast. Dreams for you there! Palm oil and gold dust and ivory; elephants and sacrificial fires and trains of captive slaves; hemp, tea, silks and smuggled opium—and do not believe that opium is not smuggled into New York harbor to this day. You think of all that, and your imagination flames.

The gentlemen in the pilot houses are not always in placid moods. Wild eyed men glare out from pilot houses aloft, like eagles from their eyries, and pass the time of day. Says one: "Where d' y' think you're going? Back, will you?"

And the other: "Back? Me back? Me?"

"You? Yes, you, you slop eyed, slack mouthed, spine twisted fresh water goob, you square headed, fatherless"—And so on, detailing irremediable flaws in the genealogy, after which both back down and avert the impending collision.—James B. Connolly in Harper's Magazine.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough, for fourteen years. Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure for throat and lung troubles. At all drug stores; price 50c and $1, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Ponderous Handel.

Handel was very large, weighing over 200 pounds. His figure was unwieldy and he rolled from side to side as he walked. His hands were so thick and ponderous that people wondered how he could play the harpsichord or organ at all. His face was red and coarse, with a long nose, thick lower lip and full chin with a dimple in it. His eyes were prominent and eyebrows very full. He was a monstrous eater and at times drank heavily. His conceit was stupendous, and he always entertained the idea that there was no music to be compared to his own. He was boorish in manner, quick in temper, and when irritated would sometimes give utterance to a robust oath in the German language. His contemporaries said he looked like a porter.

Indigestion,

With its companions, heartburn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptome, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

No Need For Worry.

The Husband (on his deathbed)—My darling, when I am gone, how will you ever be able to pay the doctor's bills? The Wife—Don't worry about that, dear. If the worst comes to the worst, I can marry the doctor, you know.

Imagination.

"Mabel has a most wonderful power of imagination."

"Really? That's the very last thing I should have given her credit for."

"Oh, it's quite true, I assure you. She actually fancies that she's good looking."

Ayer's Hair Vigor. To be sure, gray hair is better than no hair. But why have it gray, and thus tell everybody you are getting old? Keep it dark and rich; make it long and heavy. J. C. Ayer Co.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

No Penal Settlement.

Berlin, July 26.—It is semi-officially declared that there is no ground for the alarm among the German residents of New Guinea and New Britain at the report that the German government proposes to establish a penal settlement in the Admiralty islands (northeast of New Guinea) with the ultimate object of colonizing the group and thus increasing German influence in the Pacific. The government has no intention of establishing a penal settlement in the Admiralty islands or anywhere else in the South seas.

To Investigate All Companies.

Chicago, July 26.—The Inter-Ocean says that a big convention of policy holders for the purpose of demanding an investigation of the affairs of every life insurance company in the country is the aim of the Iroquuis club of Chicago which has taken the initial step toward starting a national movement. At a meeting of the executive committee of the club, held yesterday a resolution was adopted empowering the organization to appoint a committee of five members to invite delegates from other clubs to meet and consider the feasibility of the plan.

Texas Oil Fire Still Burns.

Houston, Tex., July 26.—The Humble oil fire is still burning today, but is confined to an area of one hundred acres in extent. It will burn itself out during the next 12 hours. The loss is now estimaterd at $857,000 in oil and tank damage. Two and one half million barrels of oil have been and is being destroyed, and ten earthen tanks extensively damaged. Ten bodies have been recovered and it is believed that others will be found after a more careful search.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers!

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes Oct. 27, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Italians Want Shorter Hours.

New York, July 26.—Workingmen to the number of 7,000 are out of employment at Terni, Italy, and the large armor plate rolling mills there have been closed owing to the demand of the workingmen for the eight-hour day, says a Herald dispatch from Rome. Steps looking to arbitration proposed by the government have been refused and it is thought probable that a general strike in all the Italian iron and steel mills will ensue. Upon request of the prefect, a force of infantry has been sent to the province.

Wife of Broke Suicides.

New York, July 26.—Within five minutes from the time Charles Marshall, a Wall street broker, left his wife apparently sleeping soundly in bed today, the woman wrote her husband a note telling him not to let the world blame him for what was going to happen and shot herself. She was unconscious before Mr. Marshall could reach her bedside from another room and she died in a short time. Mrs. Marshall was formerly Miss Grace Starr, and is highly connected in New York social circles. No cause for her suicide has been discovered. The tragedy ocurred in the Raleigh, a fashionable family apartment hotel overlooking Central park at Ninety-second street.

Wife Murderer Hanged.

Towanda, Pa., July 26.—The crime for which Bigler Johnson was hanged here today was the murder of his wife, Margaret Johnson, from whom he had separated and her niece, Annie Banjamin, aged 10, on September 18, 1904. It was alleged by the prosecution that the Johnson family, consisting of five persons, went to the home of Mrs. Bigler Johnson and with an axe killed the woman and the girl. The Johnsons, it was then charged, set fire to the house in an effort to conceal their crime. The entire family was arrested. Bigler pleaded guilty.

The Anaconda company is one of the early corporations organized by the late Marcus Daly and out of which the present Anacoda company of the Amalgamated Copper company was formed.

Sick Headache

When your head aches, there is a storm in the nervous system, centering in the brain.

This irritation produces pain in the head, and the turbulent nerve current sent to the stomach causes nausea, vomiting.

This is sick headache, and is dangerous, as frequent and prolonged attacks weaken the brain, resulting in loss of memory, inflammation, epilepsy, fits, dizziness, etc.

Allay this stormy, irritated, aching condition by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

They stop the pain by soothing, strengthening and relieving the tension upon the nerves—not by paralyzing them, as do most headache remedies.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do not contain opium, morphine, chloral, cocaine or similar drugs.

"Sick headache is hereditary in my family. My father suffered a great deal, and for many years I have had spells that were so severe that I was unable to attend to my business affairs for a day or so at a time. During a very severe attack of headache, I took Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they relieved me almost immediately. Since then I take them when I feel the spell coming on and it stops it at once."

Pres. S. B. Eng. Co., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

The mimograph editor says that we are told in Holy Writ that "money is the root of all evil." Holy Writ don't say any such thing, and when you depend on those Washington correspondents to quote Scripture you will always get left. The Good Book speaks of "the want of money" being the root of all evil.

Henry Revill, a Georgia legislator, and Hon. James R. Gray, editor of The Atlanta Journal, had a fist fight on the streets of Atlanta Monday. Neither belligerent was hurt a particle, their honor was vindicated and no weapons used. This is much better than shooting at each other and killing all your constituents. Let the good work go on and you will get as much satisfaction as you would with knives or pistols.

State Health Officer Porter orders that all freight cars coming into the State on the Western border shall be fumigated to kill the mosquitoes. Yes, by all odds, kill every tramp mosquito that steals a ride into the State on a freight car. We want none but those that come first-class and in Pullman coaches. Mercy knows they are bad enough, but they are not so filthy as those that travel in box cars and never take a bath.

The people of Pensacola have petitioned for a special term of court for the trial of Wm. F. Williams, the clerk who killed John White, the Pensacola merchant, and Edward Dansby, another employe in the White store. Now the judge is desirous of knowing whether Williams "could get as fair and impartial a trial at a special term of court as he could at the regular term." With the evidence so plain as in this case, it would seem that a "fair and impartial trial" could hardly be avoided. He did the shooting and had only himself to blame, lest he might have been crazy drunk, and under those conditions the law might be lenient. The aider and abettor of the crime was the stuff that stole away his

LOOKS ENCOURAGING.

The New York Sun may be said to be substantially right in viewing what may be called the "era of exposure" as an encouraging thing. It is an indication that public opinion seems to be striving toward a much higher level of general morality, says The Wall Street Journal. Only those who are short-sighted will see cause for depression in the wholesale wreck of reputations, financial, social and political, that has taken place in the last year or two. The lowest depth of corruption is contented corruption. The awakening of discontent is a sign of better things. The fact that the people buy with avidity and read with interest newspapers and periodicals teeming with "exposures," some true and well meant, others untrue and meant in malice, shows very clearly increasing sensitiveness on the part of the public conscience. When the smoke clears away it will be possible to note the great advance that has been made and we venture the prediction that in the time to come the students of American history in the early years of the twentieth century will note the period as one containing a great moral gain.

The reaction from the cult of the caption of industry is now surely complete. Probably, like all movements of the kind, it will run too far and develop many extravagencies of thought and word. Indeed, to the unbiased observer it begins to look as if it were already running too fast. Four or five years ago the possession of great wealth entitled the possessor to the admiration of the crowd. Now it renders him suspect. There is a happy medium between the two points of view. Presently that happy medium will be found and held for a while, and then we shall see things in their true perspective. What is known as commercialism—it is only another name for dollar worship—is all wrong, of course, but on the other hand riches do not of necessity connote rascality, and poverty is not always virtuous.

The main thing that needs to be driven home into the minds of the American people is the need for common honesty in all grades of politics. Mr. Bonaparte with characteristic directness says that people steal from the government because they are thieves. What people want to be taught is that the prostitution of positions of trust for private profit, whether it be in business or in politics, is thieving and no less. The law so regards it. If ever that great fact can be thoroughly grasped, then, indeed, we shall be well off.

PROPER SENTIMENT.

President Andrew Sledd of the University of Florida says that the faculty of that institution for the coming session will be the best the State has ever known and equal to any faculty in the South. Among the number will be ten Ph. D's selected from the leading institutions of this country and Europe, and the other members of the faculty will be specialists in their respective branches. Now let the people of Florida seeking higher education for their sons, bestow their patronage at home, for no matter how strong the faculty or excellent the equipment, the new University cannot thrive without students and plenty of them.—Suwannee Democrat.

The Presbyterians of Mayo expect to build a new church 40x60 feet, with all modern improvements. We don't know what "modern improvements" consists of and would suggest that the same old methods of worship are all right.

JOHN PAUL.

When a lad in his Scottish home, a seaport town, John Paul was noted for his daring and dexterity in handling sailing craft. He attracted the attention of a vessel owner who desired to send a boat across the ocean; went as a sailor's apprentice. He had a brother in America whom he had never seen, who had inherited a large estate on the shores of the Rappahannock in Virginia, who, in order to please the whim of his relative, had adopted his name of Jones. The brother was dying at the time of John's arrival and informed him that he could inherit the estate on doing the same as his dying brother.

John Paul then became John Paul Jones, was a respected resident of the Old Dominion for years, and besides being one of the first of the Revolutionists, was a man of wealth, his inheritance bringing in a large revenue. He mingled with the men of the day, and besides carrying on his farming, which was managed by a trusty Scotchman, devoted much time to his desire for the sea. When the time came for action he fitted out his own vessel and "begun to fight."

Whether he could be called "a soldier of fortune," a pirate or adventurer, he battled nobly for his adopted country, helping the weaker side to be free from oppression. In the opinion of the enemy he was a pirate. History has placed his name among those of the Patriots of 1776.

There is no occasion for a citizen of the United States to say aught against John Paul Jones, the Revolutionary hero.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. TROT OR GALLOP?

What Do Fish Do, and the Seals and Insects and Worms?

Here is a problem for people with sharp eyes: As we all know, a horse when walking or trotting advances only one leg of each pair at a time, but when galloping lifts both fore feet together and then both hind feet. Now, the question is how other animals manage this matter. The birds, of course, flap both wings together, but which birds run and which hop? We human beings "trot" when we walk and "gallop" when we swim—that is, if we are using the plain breast stroke. The dog, however, "trots" for both. Now, do the amphibious animals—the seals, otters and the rest—swim like men or like other four footed creatures?

Then there are the fish. One would rather expect that, as they move their tails from side to side, they would flap alternately with the fins, which are their hands and feet. Who can tell whether they do or not and whether all fish at all times follow one rule? By the way, how does a frog use its "hands?"

The great anatomist E. Ray Lankester has pointed out that, while the "thousand legs," such as our common gally worm, advance two feet of a pair together, the centipeds, which are much like them, do exactly the opposite, and the swimming worms also alternate the stroke of each pair of paddles. I doubt if many people can tell on which system the caterpillar manages its dozen or so legs or whether the adult insect walks, trots, paces or gallops on its six. How does the spider use eight?

Altogether this is a large field for observation, a field, too, where any one may discover new facts as yet unrecorded, and thus add to the store of knowledge.—St. Nicholas.

CORRECT ATTIRE.

He Who Dresses In Good Taste Shows That He Respects Himself.

When our country was in the log cabin stage of its growth correct dress was not held in high regard, and obviously so. The stout hearted pioneers were too busy hewing paths and blazing trails to cultivate life's finer side. Theirs was the rough work of field and camp, of hammer and saw. But times, men and manners have changed, and a new conception of dress has sprung up. Young men especially recognize the direct relation of correct dress in business and social preferment. The well dressed man carries his introduction with him—he is master of himself and of the situation. He commands the respect of others because he shows that he respects himself.

It is true that there are some men of wealth and position who slur their clothes and even some who feign to scorn the niceties of dress. The habits of a careless youth have left their imprint on such men, and it is quite certain that their disdain of dress played no part in their success and detracts measurably from their enjoyment of it, for, after all, the ripest fruit of success is the esteem of one's fellows, and who can esteem the slovenly? In talking to a man one's attention naturally roves to his clothes, his hair, his teeth and his finger nails. Dandruff on the shoulder, stains on the waistcoat and unshaven face, untidy hair, creases in the coat, a soiled collar, a mussed cravat, proclaim in trumpet tones that a man lacks the truest refinement—respect of self.—Success.

Making It Easy For Him.

"The most difficult part of a pastor's duty," said a New York preacher, "is the pastoral calls. I have always remembered one of the first I ever made, when I was a green youth just out of a theological seminary. I had been called to the bedside of a member of my church who was well known for his peculiarities and crankiness. After talking with him a few minutes I said:

"'Shall I offer a short prayer with you?'

"'Short or long. Use your own judgment,' said he.

"More and more embarrassed, I hesitated, and then said, 'What shall I pray for?'

"'Exercise your own discretion as to selection of topics,' said he."

A Preliminary.

The minister's wife engaged a new servant. The girl was very friendly with a constable, and one day she invited him to come round to see her. When he came it was washing day. She went and fetched him some beer, biscuits and cheese, but just then a voice called out, "Mary, have you got started to wash yet?"

"Yes," said Mary.

"What are you doing now?"

"Oh, I am just filling up the copper."—London Telegraph.

His Debts.

"Well, my friend, I never pay my old debts. I forget them."

"And your new ones?"

"Oh, I let them get old."

It is only a long time after having learned it that we know anything well.—Tolstoi.

EXCURSIONS TO THE WEST

To the Pacific Coast—to California, Oregon, Washington—round-trip, long transit and return limits, liberal stop-over privileges.

The rate is practically on the basis of one fare for the round trip. Of course, if you wish to visit both California and Oregon or Washington, the cost is slightly more.

These reduced rates are in effect on certain dates in months of May to October, inclusive. They apply from all Eastern points via Chicago, St. Louis or Memphis gateways. The Rock Island System will take you up in either Chicago or St. Louis, or at hundreds of other Middle West points and carry you to the Coast in through Standard or Tourist Sleepers with unexcelled Dining Car service. The Rock Island also affords a choice of routes: on the "Scenic" route you can stop off in Colorado—see Salt Lake City—visit Yellowstone National Park; on the "Southern" route you can go via El Paso, thru New Mexico, then "up coast" to San Francisco and on to Portland or Seattle if desired.

In short, these Pacific Coast excursions offer an unusually good chance to see our western country in a comprehensive manner.

If you desire to go only as far as Colorado, there are excursion rates in effect to that section and return, all summer long, specially reduced June 30 to July 4, August 12 and 13, and August 30 to September 4. Extension trips to Ogden or Salt Lake and return at low cost also.

From September 15 to October 31, 1905, one-way tourist or "colonist" tickets will be on sale to California and the Pacific Northwest—about half regular fare.

If interested, send name and address on this coupon, designating which booklet wanted and to what point you plan to go. Name probable date of start also, so we can advise definitely with respect to rates, etc.

The Useful Donkey.

In Syria, says a traveler, I saw a donkey put to an extraordinary use. One evening just before the dinner hour in our tent the Arab cook rushed hurriedly out of the door of the kitchen tent with a glass carafe in his hand. He went up to the row of donkeys, horses and packages tethered close by. Seizing the tail of the smallest of the donkeys, he hastily thrust it into the carafe, gave it two or three vigorous turns inside the bottle and then as quickly removed the unconcerned tail. Thus he had cleansed the water bottle for our dinner. It is in Syria also that the strange fashion exists of shaving the donkeys' coats in different ways, much as a lady of fashion shaves her French poodle. A choice breed of donkeys, known as "Bagdad mules," is much cherished in the neighborhood of Damascus. Their long, hairy coat, usually of pure white or pale gray, admits of fantastic clipping.

Money Hotel Cashiers Dislike.

"It is a curious habit the great American public has of wanting the kind of money that hotel cashiers dislike and have the least of," said one of those useful functionaries. "Many are the times each day that I am called upon, by ladies especially, for fifty cent pieces. Quarters won't answer. They want half dollars, though why that particular coin I've never been able to understand. No cashier cares to keep halves on hand, but always maintains a good stock of quarters and dimes, for the reason of their greater convenience. Many of the guests also beg for two dollar notes despite the fact that of all forms of currency they are the most objectionable. We never take them voluntarily and pay them out as fast as they come in."—Washington Post.

Sent Her Double.

"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at all druggists.

A Remarkable Dwarf.

Perhaps the most remarkable dwarf on record was Sir Jeffrey Hudson, the little fellow whom Scott introduces in "Peveril of the Peak." He was born in Rutlandshire, England, in 1619.

When eight years of age he was presented by the Duke of Buckingham to Queen Henrietta in a cold pie. He afterward became attached to the court of Charles I. At one of the court masks the king's porter, a man of gigantic size, who used to torment the little dwarf, pulled from one pocket a loaf of bread and from the other Jeffrey, much to the surprise and amusement of the company present. Jeffrey was at this time only eighteen inches in height.

He remained at this stature until he was thirty years of age, after which a curious exception to the laws of growth took place, since Jeffrey rapidly grew to be three feet nine inches in height, whereas most men do not grow a quarter of an inch after the age of thirty. This dwarf had an enormous head and very large hands and feet; otherwise his proportions were symmetrical, and his face was considered handsome.—Youth's Companion.

WILL RECONSIDER PASS BILL.

This Action, However, Practically Kills the Measure.

Atlanta, July 25.—Again the anti-free pass bill by Mr. Hall, of Bibb, stands upon the calendar of the house, awaiting its turn. Defeated on Friday for the lack of two votes, the house Monday reconsidered its action, after a brief debate, by a vote of 72 to 66. The friends of the measure promised that it would be brought up again at the present session.

Mr. Hall moved a reconsideration of the anti-pass bill immediately after the reading of the journal.

"The bill will take its place at the foot of the calendar, if reconsidered, and will not and cannot come up again at this session," Mr. Hall said. "I will go so far as to say if the bill should be reached on the calendar at this session, I will move to table it. That is all I can say."

The house passed by a vote of 88 to 0 the bill by Mr. Steed, of Carroll to extend the powers of the railroad commission, so as to give that body the authority to require railroads to receive receipt for and forward at once all freight tendered to them for shipment. This measure is quite an important one one, as the railroad commission is now without power to require railroads to act promptly in the transportation of freight. The bill received 87 votes and Speaker Slaton's vote in its favor gave it the required constitutional mapority, and it now goes over to the senate.

In the Senate.

Two important bills relating to the banking laws of the state were introduced in the senate by Senator McHenry.

The one which will likely attract much attention relates to loans to officers of the bank. This measure seeks to amend section 1914 of the code of 1895 providing for additional security on loans to bank officers.

The bill provides that a loan exceeding ten per cent of the capital stock of the bank shall not be made until approved by the majority of the directors of the bank, "evidenced by their signatures in writing."

Senator McHenry's other measure seeks to create a lien against the assets of banks in favor of holders of receipts for collateral sent for collection and remittance to holders of receipts.

Senator Furr's bill providing for the purchase of hounds by the different counties of the state for the purpose of tracking criminals was passed by the senate.

Fight Results in Death.

Waycross, Ga., July 26.—As a result of a fight at Fort Mudge, 14 miles from Waycross, on the Jacksonville road Darling Dowling, Jr., was killed and Charley Crews was badly cut in several places. Three shots were fired by Crews and Dowling was shot twice in the head and stomach. Darling Dowling, father of the man who was killed, cut Cews, and Eveette Mizell received a flesh wound from Crews pistol. Crews will recover. The fight was the result of an old grudge. All the parties are prominently connected.

GEORGIA SHERIFF KILLS MAN.

He is Arrested and Held in Jail on a Murder Charge.

Albany, Ga., July 26.—At Beloit, in Lee county, Sheriff Denny shot and killed Joseph M. Oliver, a middle-aged white man. The tragedy was the result of a disagreement growing out of a note Oliver is said to have written to the mother of Denny. The sheriff is just 21.

Oliver Denny and Wesly Pye met on the railroad track and began to discuss the matter. Denny, it is alleged, invited Oliver to step aside a few paces and settle the affair. When they stepped aside Denny drew his revolver and shot Oliver twice through the body, killing him instantly.

Denny was arrested and is in jail at Leesburg, charged with murder. Oliver's body was brought to this city for interment.

Oliver is survived by a wive and several small children.

Veterans Visit Battleground.

Washington, D. C., July 26.—After being in this city and Alexandria since Friday night, the veterans of the Seventh Georgia Regimental association, which held a reunion Friday afternoon at Groveton Battle cemetery, in Prince Williams county, left Alexandria last evening for Fredericksburg, where they will visit the points of interest in Richmond and Petersburg. The veterahs in a body attended the services at Christ Episcopal church, and heard a sermon by the rector, Rev. William J. Morton. They spent most of the time while here at the Confederate home on Prince street, where they were entertained by the local veterans and members of the auxiliary society.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars' outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by all druggists.

One Life is Lost in Flames.

Little Rock, Ark., July 26.—Estimates of the loss by fire in the destruction of the Arkansas Democrat company's three-story building and newspaper and printing plant shows an aggregate loss of $180,000, with insurance of $100,000. Dan D. Taylor, a stereotyper, who slept in the third story of the building, was burned to death, his charred remains being found in the ruins. The fire had gained great headway before it was discoverd. It started in the basement, but there is no definite information as to how it originated.

Feel Impending Doom.

The feeling of impending doom in the minds of many victims of Bright's disease and diabetes has been changed to thankfulness by the benefit derived from taking Foley's Kidney Cure. It will cure incipient Bright's disease and diabetes and even in the worst cases gives comfort and relief. Slight disorders are cured in a few days. "I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Secretary Wilson Sick.

Washington, July 26—Secretary Jas. Wilson, of the department of agriculture, is confined to his apartment as the result of an attack of acute indigestion. He was taken ill yesterday, but continued at the department throughout the day. He is improving rapidly and is expected to return to duty tomorrow.

Will Issue New Crop Report.

Washington, July 26.—It was announced at the department of agriculture today that a revised estimate of the acreage of cotton planted this year as compared with that of last year will probably be made and given to the public tomorrow at 12 o'clock noon.

IN MAYOR'S COURT.

Tom Wilson Was Charged With Disorderly Conduct, but Discharged.

Tom Williams, a colored man, was arraigned before Mayor Thomas Wednesday morning upon a charge of disorderly conduct. The charge was preferred by another negro, Allaby Tillman, who claimed that Wilson was guilty of an assault upon his boy.

After hearing the evidence in the case Mayor Thomas released the defendant.

Williams bears a very good name among those who know him, all stating that he is a peaceable, hard-working man and law-abiding citizen.

THE COTTON CROP.

Rust Has Set in, But is Not Serious, and a Fair Yield Expected.

Some farmers from the northern and northwestern sections of the county state that rust is prevalent in those sections, but that it is not severe, and very little loss to the crop will result. The plant is opening rapidly, and many growers will begin picking in a few days.

Indications are that the yield will be about the same as last year, with a slight increase in acreage. The continued drouth during the early summer had a tendency to set the crop back to some extent.

Had a Big Time.

Mount Vernon Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias, had a big time at its regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening, the occasion being refreshments and a smoker, after the regular session of the lodge, at which the Rank of Esquire was conferred upon one candidate.

There were a number of visitors at this meeting, to say nothing of the members of the lodge, with the result that it was one of the lagest gatherings of the order since the last district meeting here.

At the close of the lodge refreshments of ice cream and cake was served, followed by fine cigars. During this part of the program many addresses were made "on the good of the order," and among the visitors speaking were W. E. Dow of High Springs Lodge, District Deputy Grand Chancellor, Prof. Arthur Williams of Tallahassee, and J. H. Coffee of Waldo.

The committee of arrangements, and to whom the Knights are indebted, were L. C. Lynch, M. B. Saunders and J. A. Phifer.

THE COTTON CROP.

Rust Has Set In, But is Not Serious, and a Fair Yield Expected.

Some farmers from the northern and northwestern sections of the county state that rust is prevalent in those sections, but that it is not severe, and very little loss to the crop will result. The plant is opening rapidly, and many growers will begin picking in a few days.

Indications are that the yield will be about the same as last year, with a slight increase in acreage. The continued drouth during the early summer had a tendency to set the crop back to some extent.

Mr. Sato said it would not be necessary for any of the party to go to Washington since the president is at Oyster Bay, and they would await the president's pleasure as to their plans.

"The baron will rest a few days," said Mr. Sato, "his journey having been quite an extended one. He is in good health but needs a little rest after traveling so far. We have traveled every day since we landed in this country, arriving in cities early in the day and getting out in the evening. We stopped not longer than six hours at any place."

Americans Given a Royal Welcome by Mikado's People.

Yokohama, July 26.—Secretary of War Taft and party received a demonstrative welcome to Japan, the principal buildings, streets and wharves of this city and the shipping in the harbor being gaily decorated. QUIET DAY AT SAGAMORE HILL.

No Official Visitors Received by President Roosevelt.

Oyster Bay, L. I., July 26.—This was one of the quietest week days the president has had since his arrival at Sagamore Hill for the summer.

Although Secretary Root is not in Washington, the affairs of the department of state are now under his direction and all matters relating to that departmet are being referred by the president to him. They include the arrangement for the formal reception of the Russian and Japanese peace envoys. When the details of these arrangements shall have worked out by the state department in connection with the navy department they will be communicated to the president for his approval.

AUTHORITIES ARE FIGHTING FEVER

New Orleans Official Trying To Subdue Yellow Jack.

STRICT SANITATION IS URGED

New Quarantines Are Being Put on. Fruit Vessels May Be Forced to Seek New Ports of Entry—News From Other Points on Situation.

New Orleans, July 26.—No arely reports of deaths from yellow fever were received at the board of health today. In today's mail was sent out a circular to every physician in the city urging the prompt report of all cases of fever, typhoid, malarial, yellow and otherwise, so that the appearance of new foci may be immediately established, screened and watched.

The doctors are also asked to surrender individual opinions they may have and to co-operate with the state and federal authorities in as rigid an application as posisble of the general screening of houses and cisterns and the prosecution of sanitary measures. Meantime the city board of health is today making up a careful record for the state board of all cases of sickness and of the deaths since the fever appeared.

Subscriptions are being taken to a fund of $100,000 for the maintenance of a detention hospital. Sanitation in the French market quarter where the disease incubated continues. That section is now probably in a more cleanly condition than it has been at any time since the war. The more rigid regulations which are to be put into effect to prevent further introduction of disease and by increasing the period of detention of ships from Central American ports and the Indies threatens temporarily to drive the fruit trade to Mobile, Galveston, Pensacola and other ports. The fruit companies are now considering a change of entry, fearing that their fruit will spoil if subjected to the increased detention.

New quarantines are being put on, but a number of towns still refuse to put up the bars.

The piney woods section of St. Tammany has refused to quarantine, and has extended a general invitation to New Orleans people to come there.

Twelve Cases; Eight Deaths.

Washington, July 26. A report received here today from Surgeon Wasdin of the public health and Marine hospital service, who is stationed at New Orleans and who, under instructions of the acting surgeon general is engaged in an effort to deetermine the exact condition with regard to yellow fever in that city says the city authorities concede 12 cases and eight deaths but he adds that there probably are many more cases. Those so far observed are of a virulent type. Surgeon Wasdin stationed at Memphis, who rendered signal service during the epidemic at Ocean Springs, in 1897, has entered on a careful investigation of conditions along the gulf coast from Mobile to Pass Christia, Miss., and passed Assistant Surgeon Young has been ordered from Chicago to Jackson, Miss., to confer with the Mississippi health authorities relative to train inspection.

Quarantine Officer Put Off Train.

Nashville, Tenn., July 26.—A Decatur, Ala., dispatch says that last night Quarantine Officer Lem Jones was ejected from a Southern railway train at Leighton, west of here, by Conductor Payne. Blewett Wallace, who has charge of the state quarantine forces here, received orders from the Southern this morning giving all quarantine officers the right to ride on all trains.

PASSENGER RATE WAR ON.

The Price of a Ticket from New York to Chicago Is Reduced.

New York, July 26.—Railroad officials here express considerable concern over the passenger rate war which is now in progress between Chicago-New York lines.

Several of the roads already have put into effect a rate of $16 for first-class fare from Chicago to New York. One of the longer routes is charging $14, and further reductions are threatened. The trouble originated in demands made by the Michigan Central for a differential. The demand was considered by three arbitration commissioners a short time ago and was allowed with certain limitations. The Erie and the Grand Trunk, however, declined to accept the arbitration as final. The two roads insisted that the Michigan Central had no right to claim differential on through business in which the New York Central shared. The Erie in the streets declare that they would not object to allowing a differential to the Michigan Central on its own lines, but beyond that point they will concede nothing. As a result of the arbitrators, the Michigan Central put in a differential rate of $18 first-class passenger fare from Chicago to New York. The reduction was promptly met by three other lines, and it is intimated a first-class rate of $10 may soon be given.

Price of Cotton Goes Upward.

New Orleans, July 26.—The cotton market recorded new high level of prices for the season at noon the active positions being 17 to 20 points higher than yesterday's finals. When October sold at 11.25, an advanceof 19 points; December at 11.30, an advance of 20 points, and January at 11.32, an advance of 17 points. Bad crop reports and news of large areas of abandoned land because of overflowed valleys were the principal causes, together with the assurance that Manchester was again in the market and that prices of goods had been raised at Fall River. Excitement was intense about the ring and the outside public became heavily interested during the morning hours.

Wife of Broke Suicides.

New York, July 26.—Within five minutes from the time Charles Marshall, a Wall street broker, left his wife apparently sleeping soundly in bed today, the woman wrote her husband a note telling him not to let the world blame him for what was going to happen and shot herself. She was unconscious before Mr. Marshall could reach her bedside from another room and she died in a short time. Mrs. Marshall was formerly Miss Grace Starr, and is highly connected in New York social circles. No cause for her suicide has been discovered. The tragedy ocurred in the Raleigh, a fashionable family apartment hotel overlooking Central park at Ninety-second street.

Wife Murderer Hanged.

Towanda, Pa., July 26.—The crime for which Bigler Johnson was hanged here today was the murder of his wife, Margaret Johnson, from whom he had separated and her niece, Annie Banjamin, aged 10, on September 18, 1904. It was alleged by the prosecution that the Johnson family, consisting of five persons, went to the home of Mrs Bigler Johnson and with an axe killed the woman and the girl. The Johnsons, it was then charged, set fire to the house in an effort to conceal their crime. The entire family was arrested. Bigler pleaded guilty.

Secretary Wilson Sick.

Washington, July 26—Secretary Jas Wilson, of the department of agriculture, is confined to his apartment as the result of an attack of acute indigestion. He was taken ill yesterday, but continued at the department throughout the day. He is improving rapidly and is expected to return to duty tomocrow.

SWEDEN SENDS ITS TERMS TO NORWAY

What They Expect In Case Of a Dissolution.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Committee Regards an Arbitration Convention Between the Two Countries as the Proper Thing—Committee Recommendations.

Stockholm, July 26.—The special committee appointed by the riksdag to deal with the crisis which created the revolution in Norway today delivered its report.

The committee declares unanimously that the government bill cannot be adopted in the form in which it was presented to the riksdag, and proposes that the riksdag shall signify its willingness to negotiate with Norway for a dissolution of the union if the newly elected storthing requests a repeal of the act of union and a dissolution of the union or if such request is received from Norway after the Norwegian people by a plebiscite have declared in favor of a dissolution of the union.

The committee recommends that in the event of a dissolution of the union Sweden should insist on the following terms:

First, the establishment of a zone on each side of the frontier separating the kingdoms within which the existing fortifications shall be razed and new fortifications may not be erected

Second, the right of pasturing reindeer belonging to Swedish Lapladers in North Norway.

Third, that the transit trade through both countries shall be secured against unjustifiable obstructions.

Fourth, that the status of Sweden in respect to foreign powers as established by the treaty shall be clearly defined so that Sweden shall be completely freed from responsibility for Norway to other states.

The committee also regards an arbitration convention between Sweden and Norway as desirable, although it does not consider it an essential condition for the dissolution of the union.

The committee further proposes to authorize the goverment to raise a loan of $25,000,000 which can, by a resolution of the riksdag, be made available for such readjustments and arrangements as may be necessitated by the new conditions.

Regarding eventual negotiations with Norway the comittee declares that whatever may be demanded for the welfare and dignity of Sweden as a condition of the repal of the act of union on the part of Sweden and the recognition of Norway must be claimed and adhered to with rigor and determination.

Rawlings Trial Continues.

Valdosta, Ga., July 26.—The trial of Jesse and Leonard Rawlings, indicted jointly with Milton Rawlings, for the murder of Willie and Carrie Carter has begun in the superior court here. The two boys were accompanied by their mother and sisters and [illegible] the morning at the request of Attorney Cooper their father was brought from the jail to be with them. Attorney Cooper moved that none of the jurors who were regularly drawn for the term be allowed to serve as they disqualified. Judge Mitchell informed the attorney that the remarks would be passed upon as their names were called.

Young Hero Loses His Life

New York, July 26.—After saving his mother and sister, who with a score of others were for a time in great peril from fire, Nathan Newman, 20 years of age, today lost his own life in a burning Brooklyn tenement house. Half a dozen families all whom were Hebrews, living in the building were asleep. When the fire started Newman got through in safety but returned for his mother and sister. He assisted them to a place of safety, but he himself was cut off by the flames. All the other occupants of the house escaped. The property loss was small.

TWO TRAGEDIES SATURDAY NIGHT

One Man Killed at Melrose and Another Near Newberry.

BOTH PARTIES WERE NEGROES

One Negro Was Killed by Accident, While Another Met His Death in Interfering With an Officer—Coroner's Jury Sat on Both Cases.

Information has been received in this city of two homicides which occurred Saturday night.

A colored man, Stepney Brown, was accidentally killed at his home near Melrose, a load of nine buckshot having penetrated his body, death resulting instantly.

The killing was done by Marsh DeBose, another negro. DeBose had a grievance against his father-in-law, John Roberson, and while he was calling at the home of Brown it is said DeBose came upon the scene and opened fire. Only two shots struck the man for whom they were intended, Brown receiving almost the full load. Roberson was wounded, but it is expected he will recover. DeBose made his escape. A coroner's jury held under the direction of Justice Lumpkin Sunday rendered a verdict that Brown came to his death by a gunshot wound at the hands of Marsh DeBose.

A Newberry Tragedy.

There was a tragedy at Newberry Saturday night which cost John Jenkins, a negro, his life for interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. Constable Siford was attempting to arrest a negro, when Jenkins charged upon him with an ugly-looking knife. In order to save his own life Siford was forced to turn upon the negro, with the result that his (Jenkin's) funeral was held the following day.

The coroner's jury sat Saturday and rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." J. W. McCollum & Co.

VALUES HAVE SHRUNK.

Judge Carter Speaks of Fluctuating Values of Lake City Property.

Judge Syd L. Carter returned from Tallahassee Tuesday, where he has been for the past two or three days.

In speaking of the action of the State Board of Education in selling the State's property at Lake City, Judge Carter says that years ago a certain candidate for Congress in the First District was fond of telling a story about a negro and a catfish, in which the fish "swunk" considerably in one night. The Judge always thought the shrinking was considerably exaggerated, until now he has found a counterpart in the remarkable diminution in the value of property in Lake City.

Before the University was located at Gainesville, Lake City claimed the value of the State's holdings was two or three hundred thousand dollars. Monday, when they were trying to buy it from the Educational Board, it was barely worth fifteen thousand! A very remarkable showing, to say the least of it. However, the latter value is probably nearer the mark.

Judge Carter stated that the Governor will probably today apply to the Supreme Court for an advisory opinion as to the constitutionality of the Buchman bill, and that the Supreme Court will settle the matter one way or the other in a very short time.

It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The inventor of the famous "TERRELL SCRAPE," a man known wherever plows are sold and used, says:

It is also a sure specific for pain in the back or under the shoulders. I have recommended it in numerous cases to my workmen, when sick and unable to work, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. H. D. TERRELL, President Atlanta Plow Co., Atlanta."

Mr. Baker states that he is well pleased with his purchase. The day following the sale he was offered more than half of what he paid for the entire parcel for a half-interest, but refused same. He expects to improve the property after a while.

Cheerfully Recommended for Rheumatism.

THE JIM CROW LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

That Is the Decision of Judge Call of Duval Circuit.

CANNOT SEPARATE THE RACES

Negroes Can Have the Front Seat on Street Cars—Law Declared Unconstitutional Because It Makes Discriminations—Appeal To Be Taken.

Special to The Daily Sun.

Jacksonville, July 25.—In the circuit court chambers this forenoon Judge Call rendered his decision in the case of Andrew Patterson, colored, vs. W. B. Pickett, sheriff, for release from imprisonment in the county jail by discharging him upon the unconstitutionality of the new law, which required the separation of the races on street cars.

Judge Call's decision declaring the law unconstitutional was based on the clause that permitted colored nurses with white children or sick people to ride in the same compartment of street cars, which he declared was class legislation. Section 7, of the Avery bill, as amended by the Senate judiciary committee, was the part declared unconstitutional.

The decision has caused much comment and the case will be taken to the Supreme Court at the earliest possible date.

GAINESVILLE HAD BIG SUNDAY FIRE

House and Contents, Valued at $4,000, Completely Destroyed.

DISCOVERY IS MADE TOO LATE

To Save Property, Notwithstanding Heroic Efforts of the Fire Department, Which Responded Promptly—Family Absent at Time of Conflagration.

An alarm of fire was turned in from Box 43 a few moments after 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, which summoned the department to the house owned by the Abstract and Realty Company and occupied by Charles S. Hill and family, 118 West Main street S.

The building and contents were destroyed, involving an aggregate loss of $4,000.

Notwithstanding that the fire department responded with admirable promptness the building was too far gone to save it. The flames had evidently been under way for some time when discovered by W. J. McCormick, who resides on the same street in the vicinity of the Hill home. When Mr. McCormick noticed the fire the flames were licking through a window on the second floor and the interior of the building was a seething mass. The alarm was immediately turned in, but it was necessary to go quite a distance to an alarm box, and even after the discovery the fire had an opportunity to make considerable headway.

The alarm attracted a large number of spectators, many of whom were anxious and willing to save the contents of the building, but the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to enter the house, so excessive was the heat.

At the time of the fire there was no one in the house. Mrs. Hill and children are visiting in Palmetto, and Mr. Hill was en route to Macclenney, where he was going in the interest of the Commer Lumber Company, by whom he is employed as a civil engineer and surveyor. Mr. Hill was in the house a half-hour before the fire was discovered, but merely went to get his valise, and left immediately for the Seaboard Air Line train. He was intercepted at Waldo by telegram, however, and returned to this city, where he found his furniture and other valuable household effects in ruin.

The building was valued at $2,000, and was insured with E. E. Voyle for half that amount. This was one of the most comfortably furnished homes in the city, and the loss of household furniture, etc., is placed at more than $2,000, with an insurance of $1,200. This insurance was with A. M. Cushman.

At one time during the fire the residence of C. C. Pedrick was threatened, and it was due to the most heoric efforts that the building was saved. Mr. and Mrs. Pedrick desire to extend thanks to the department and their friends for their excellent work in saving the property. A great many of the household effects of this home were moved into the street, as it was thought sure the house would be destroyed.

The origin of the fire remains a mystery. Mrs. Hill has been in South Florida for several weeks, and the house has been vacant. Mr. Hill spends seven-eighths of his time away from home, hence there has been no matches or conbustibles of any other kind used about the place, and the electric current was not on at the time.

Manager Voyle of the Abstract and Realty Company states that the company will rebuild as soon as possible, as the location is a desirable one.

Death of B. M. Smith.

Information reached this city Monday of the death of B. M. Smith, which occurred near Miami. Particulars of the death were not learned.

Deceased was well known in this city, where he resided for many years, and where his two remaining children, Misses Gussie and Katie Smith, now reside. He was about sixty-five years of age.

Friends of the family extend sympathy in their hour of bereavement.

Thousands of Women

ARE MADE WELL AND STRONG

Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Rests Upon the Fact that It Really Does Make Sick Women Well

Thousands upon thousands of American women have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Their letters are on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office, and prove this statement to be a fact and not a mere boast.

Overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine, and compared with it all other medicines and treatment for women are experiments.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished its widespread results for good?

Why has it lived and thrived and done its glorious work for a quarter of a century?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has even approached its success is plainly and positively because there is no other medicine in the world so good for women's ills.

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womankind is not because it is a stimulant—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructor ever discovered to act directly upon the uterine system, positively CURING disease and displacements and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due. If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience that it will effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhœa, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration, or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Anyway, write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It's free and always helpful.

DR. SLEDD'S SERMONS.

Preached Two Fine Sermons Sunday. Was Listened to With Interest.

Dr. Andrew Sledd, president of the University of Florida, favored the church-going people of this city Sunday with two magnificent sermons, which were listened to by large congregations who manifested the greatest interest.

Dr. Sledd preached in the morning in the pulpit of his own church, the Methodist Church South, and in the evening filled an appointment at the union service, which was held at the First Baptist Church. In the evening the church was so crowded that many who arrived were unable to secure seats.

Dr. Sledd is a pleasing and impressive, as well as an earnest speaker, and never fails to interest his congregation. It is hoped that he will favor the people often with his eloquence and earnestness when the University term opens here.

CENSUS WORK BEGINS.

Enumerator T. J. McRae in Gainesville Consulting With Deputies.

T. J. McRae of Hawthorn, census enumerator of Alachua county, was in Gainesville Monday, consulting with his deputies who will assist him in taking the census of this county.

The blanks, etc., have been issued to the enumerators throughout the State by Agricultural Commissioner McLin, and are the most complete in regard to population, number of farms, deaths and manufacturing concerns that Florida has ever had. Since the last census was taken, which was in 1895, both Gainesville and Alachua county have steadily advanced in population.

It is Mr. McRae's intention to take all of the precincts in the eastern and western part of the county first, and finish the enumeration with the Gainesville precinct. He thinks he will complete the work by October 15 and have everything in readiness to submit to the authorities on time.

FARMERS WILL MAKE THEIR OWN MEAT

Can Raise and Cure at Less Cost Than Buying Western Goods.

THE PRODUCTS ARE BETTER

The Farmers of This Section Are Becoming Wise and With Cold Storage Facilities Will Show Western Packers a Thing or Two in a Few Years.

There will be something doing in the pork raising line in Alachua county the coming season, if the reports of farmers from the various sections of the county are to be relied upon and the farmer will no longer be compelled to pay his grocer, or the man who "runs" him, enormous prices for meat for the twelve months following next December, at least.

The farmers of Alachua county, more strongly in some sections than in others, are waking up to their interests. They are beginning to realize that they can raise their own meats at a great deal less cost than buying bacon and are working to that end.

The introduction of cold storage in this county has accomplished a great deal in educating the farmer. He has discovered that meat placed on cold storage and afterward properly cured is not only better but a great deal cheaper than the meat that is raised and butchered in the West, sent to Chicago, "prepared," sent to the South and sold at about four to six profits before it reaches his larder.

The farmer is beginning to realize that he can produce his meat at home, butcher it and bring it to cold storage at a small cost, take it out and cure it, and save from 50 to 75 per cent of the amount he is compelled to pay in the stores and has better meat besides. The cold storage facilities of this city accommodated thousands of pounds last season, and the prospects are that the coming winter will double that amount. From present indications, at the progress the raising of meat is making, it will be necessary to increase the capacity within the next two years, notwithstanding there is a cold storage plant at Alachua.

These are modern times, and with the present advancement of the meat interests and the prospects for the future, the Western packers may need look for anything but a distressing decrease within the next few years.

High Springs Was Good.

The Gainesville junior baseball team, which visited High Springs Tuesday afternoon, are well pleased with the hospitable manner in which they were treated by the club of that town, as well as the citizens. Notwithstanding the fact that the Gainesville boys were victorious, the score being four to three, the visiting club was extended every courtesy possible, the refreshments even being free at every place in the city. Whenever a Gainesville boy appeared for a drink and attempted to pay for it the assurance was always given that "the bill is paid."

The High Springs boys expect to come to Gainesville for a return game soon, and the junior club is anxious to give them a good time, which they will no doubt do.

Notwithstanding that the game was a junior one, it was well played, and better than a great many league games, if we are to judge by the score. It is said by those who witnessed it that the boys on both teams played excellent ball, and deserve to be congratulated.

Pe-ru-na, the Remedy That Cured.

"On seeking the advice of a physician, he prescribed a tonic. I found, however, that it did me no good. On seeking the advice of our druggist, he asked me to try Peruna. In a few weeks I began to feel and act like a different person. My appetite increased, I did not have that worn-out feeling, and I could sleep splendidly. MR. WALL WAS HERE.

Watchdog of the Treasury Pays Gainesville Friends a Visit.

Among the prominent visitors to Gainesville Wednesday was Hon. John P. Wall of Putnam Hall, representative in the Legislature from Putnam county, and who has become known throughout the State as the "Watchdog of the Treasury."

Mr. Wall is probably the best posted representative all-round in the House of Representatives. During his first time as representative from Putnam county, many years ago, he gained a reputation as an economist which stuck to him and which he continued to manifest at the session a few months ago closed.

Mr. Wall is well pleased with the progress of Gainesville, and, while he was a great advocate of the famous Buckman bill, claiming to be the founder of the principals upon which it was drawn, declares that he is glad Gainesville secured the University, because it was the most desirable candidate in the contest for several reasons. "I worked for the success of the Buckman bill with all my heart," he said, "because I believed it was a good bill, and I yet believe it. It was through no desire to abolish the East Florida Seminary or no other State school, except for the consolidation of the educational interests of Florida, because I believed this step was necessary, not only to the economy of the State, but to the benefit of the young men and young women of Florida."

In speaking of the attempt of certain parties to show the unconstitutionality of the Buckman bill, Mr. Wall stated that he considered that absurd. "I studied that bill carefully and weighed every point, not only risking my own judgment, but the judgment of learned lawyers, and I can say frankly that I believe the bill will stand, and in my opinion it's all foolishness to try to prove it unconstitutional at this time."

Italians Want Shorter Hours.

New York, July 26.—Workingmen to the number of 7,000 are out of employment at Terni, Italy, and the large armor plate rolling mills there have been closed owing to the demand of the workingmen for the eight-hour day, says a Herald dispatch from Rome. Steps looking to arbitration proposed by the government have been refused and it is the opinion that a general strike in all the Italian iron and steel mills will ensue. Upon request of the prefect, a force of infantry has been sent to the province.

A member of the W. C. T. U. refused to ride in an automobile because it was run by alcohol.

Japan now has half a million men in the field and the little fellows are worrying even the Germans.

The market reports quote "butter strong and cheese active." The weather conditions are perhaps to blame.

The police patrol wagon at Tampa will have to be enlarged. A few nights ago it took six trips to lodge one bunch in jail. They were coon crap shooters.

The Japs have done a good act in occupying Sachalin, one of the Russian convict colonies. The Czar will have to hunt up a new location to send prisoners.

An Atlanta youth of 17 summers has been crazed with cigarettes. They are a great aid to nature, as they will generally complete what nature has so well begun.

Henry Revill, a Georgia legislator, and Hon. James R. Gray, editor of The Atlanta Journal, had a fist fight on the streets of Atlanta Monday. Neither beligerent was hurt a particle, their honor was vindicated and no weapons used. This is much better than shooting at each other and killing all your constituents. Let the good work go on and you will get as much satisfaction as you would with knives or pistols.

State Health Officer Porter orders that all freight cars coming into the State on the Western border shall be fumigated to kill the mosquitoes. Yes, by all odds, kill every tramp mosquito that steals a ride into the State on a freight car. We want none but those that come first-class and in Pullman coaches. Mercy knows they are bad enough, but they are not so filthy as those that travel in box cars and never take a bath.

Fred Cook, the colored man hanged at Ocala July 21, declared his innocence to the last and just before the drop fell he pointed to a man in the crowd named Allen Love and said: "There stands the man that killed Pitts and he should be here on this scaffold instead of me, and I should be out there a free man. The day will come when all people, both white and colored, will find out that I am being wrongfully hanged." He then related the whole story and sang a song before he was swung off.

The people of Pensacola have petitioned for a special term of court for the trial of Wm. F. Williams, the slayer who killed John White, the Pensacola merchant, and Edward Dansby, another employe in the White store. But the judge is desirous of knowing whether Williams "could get as fair and impartial a trial at a special term of court as he could at the regular term." With the evidence so plain as in this case, it would seem that a "fair and impartial trial" could hardly be granted. He did the shooting and had only himself to blame, lest he might have been crazy drunk, and under those conditions the law might be to blame. The aider and abettor of this crime was the stuff that stole away his brain.

UNCHARITABLE JOURNALISM.

The Twice-a-Week Sun is the paper that reaches more people in Alachua county than all others put together. Advertisers should make a note of this fact.—Gainesville Sun.

Note—The foregoing squib may be a fact, but if it is a fact, it is handled a bit too careless. We print an average of about 800 copies a week, and it is a well-known and thoroughly established fact that all who do not subscribe to The Hornet borrow it, which gives it a circulation of about 3,000. Again, should The Hornet and Star consolidate their advertising forces, The Sun would have to go away back and sit down.

"Advertisers should make a note of this fact" also!—High Springs Hornet.

Editor Setzer is the most sensitive man engaged in the newspaper business. There is nothing "uncharitable" in the claim of The Sun. It is based on business principles and can be substantiated by our subscription books. He says: "We print about an average of 800 copies a week." If this statement is true, why did he only order 400 copies of an advertising supplement which he was paid to insert in his regular edition? Furthermore, if he prints "about" 800 copies a week, why did he tell an employe of The Sun some time ago that he printed 17 quires—408 papers? The Twice-a-Week Sun has printed and circulated during the past year an actual average of (not "about") 3,500 copies per issue, and we are prepared to substantiate our claim that The Twice-a-Week Sun reaches more people than all the other weekly papers in the county combined. The statement is not "handled a bit too carelessly," and "should The Hornet and Star consolidate their advertising forces" the combination would look like "thirty cents" if the circulation of the two papers should appear in parallel columns with that of The Sun.

We are perfectly willing to publish the statements of the postmasters at Gainesville and High Springs as to circulation of the three papers and defy Editor Setzer to accept the proposition.

MOST RIGHTEOUS JUDGE.

Trial by jury, as recently shown in the trial of Harry Bomford of Tampa, for assault with a deadly weapon, when he shot Capt. Park at the home of the latter, has proven in this instance to be a farce. It is far better to do away with all juries and place the power with the judge, when such sickly specimens of men compose them as did in this case.

But the charge of Judge Gordon, which here follows, shows that men of his caliber are needed in our land today, to put a stop to the actions of such lecherous whelps who destroy the homes of honest people and then gloat over their despicable actions to those of their ilk. The law has no way of doing them ample punishment, as the world would be better without them, and they are let off on very light punishment for such heinous crimes. Judge Gordon truthfully said:

"This court does not set itself up as a preacher or a reformer, but feels it is proper, under the circumstances, to speak plainly on this occasion.

"In all civilized countries the right of a man to protect the honor of his family is recognized, even when there is little honor to protect.

"By your own testimony you are guilty of assault with intent to murder. There was ample evidence to support the charge, and if the jury had convicted you the court would have given you the full extent of the law.

"Even in savage countries the sanctity of the home is recognized. I am convinced that my construction of the law on this subject is based on sound common sense and it will continue to be the law in this court while I am on the bench, until my decision is reversed by some higher court.

"It does not matter how this matter may affect you, or Mr. Park, or any other individual. The question is the preservation of the home in this county and State. No matter what may be a man's views morally or immorally, you, a married man, had no right to leave your home to violate the sanctity of another's. If I were passing sentence on my own brother for a crime like yours I would give him the extreme penalty.

"The sentence of the law is that you be confined in the county jail at hard labor for a period of one year."

The Sun has received another communication from Prof. J. A. Ormond, begging one more chance to fire a volley of adjectives, etc., through its columns at Dr. Kelley, and we most respectfully decline to continue the controversy. We will be obliged to stop it ourselves sometime, and now is the time.

JOHN PAUL.

When a lad in his Scottish home, a seaport town, John Paul was noted for his daring and dexterity in handling sailing craft. He attracted the attention of a vessel owner who desired to send a boat across the ocean; went as a sailor's apprentice. He had a brother in America whom he had never seen, who had inherited a large estate on the shores of the Rappahannock in Virginia, who, in order to please the whim of his relative, had adopted his name of Jones. The brother was dying at the time of John's arrival and informed him that he could inherit the estate on doing the same as his dying brother.

John Paul then became John Paul Jones, was a respected resident of the Old Dominion for years, and besides being one of the first of the Revolutionists, was a man of wealth, his inheritance bringing in a large revenue. He mingled with the men of the day, and besides carrying on his farming, which was managed by a trusty Scotchman, devoted much time to his desire for the sea. When the time came for action he fitted out his own vessel and "begun to fight."

Whether he could be called "a soldier of fortune," a pirate or adventurer, he battled nobly for his adopted country, helping the weaker side to be free from oppression. In the opinion of the enemy he was a pirate. History has placed his name among those of the Patriots of 1776.

There is no occasion for a citizen of the United States to say aught against John Paul Jones, the Revolutionary hero.

RATES TO THE FAIR.

The Florida Mid-Winter Fair Association has obtained from the trunk lines of railroads leading into Florida decidedly low rates for the fair to be held at Tampa, November 15th to 30th. The following rates to Tampa during the fair have been agreed upon:

From all points in the West, 80 per cent of one fare for the round trip, with a maximum rate of $20 for the round trip from all Ohio points. These rates have been agreed upon by the Southern Passenger Association, and from all points south of Washington one fare for the round trip. New York boats will sell for one fare for the round trip.

James Williams, who was serving a life sentence for killing Mark Bartleson at Miami, several years ago—a most deliberate murder, if our memory serves us correctly—has been pardoned. Walter L. Taylor who, after being called some very vile name, assaulted Hon. W. B. Lamar, and for this offense was sentenced to prison for five years, and no pardon can be obtained that he may be made a free man, to care for his wife and five children, who are in want.

That is the only trouble with the Italians coming to this country—they don't care what they bring with them. One who landed in New Orleans a few days ago brought a case of yellow fever.

The Japanese land on Blogovestchensk, according to a report of the fighting, and we have not yet looked it up to see whether that was near Solarskiplexns or not, but suppose so.

Miss Alice Roosevelt and party, including Secretary Taft and others, have arrived in Japan. The Japs served daylight fireworks and other refreshments at Yokohama.

Japan is in no hurry to end the war as long as her credit is good.

CARD FROM JUDGE CARTER.

He Corrects Impressions Made by The Florida Times-Union.

Editor Sun: As there seems to be a general misapprehension as to the action of the State Board of Education on Monday, growing out of the statement in The Times-Union that they had established a State school at Lake City, and as I was present, I do not think it improper for me to say that the Board of Education has done nothing of the kind, and that the statement does them an injustice. They simply sold to certain named trustees for the benefit of Lake City the land other than the original one hundred acres belonging to the State, including Foster Hall and the apparatus belonging to the State for the sum of fifteen thousand dollars.

As to the wisdom of this action I express no opinion, but it is very unjust to the board to say that they have established a State school at Lake City.

Respectfully,

SYD L. CARTER.

Hon. Daniel Lamont Dead.

New York, July 25.—Colonel Daniel Lamont, secretary of war under President Cleveland, died at his country residence at Millbrook, Duchess county, N. Y., after a brief illness. Nothing except the bare announcement of Colonel Lamont's death was made public by the family last night.

It was understod, however, that the death was unexpected, although Colonel Lamont had been in feeble health and the members of the immediate family were gathered at Altamont, the Lamont country home at Millbrook.

Military Convicts Escape.

Spokane, Wash., July 25.—Five military convicts have escaped from the guard house at Fort Riley. The names of the men are Frank Burns, Oscar Reynolds, Frank Collingswood, W. Lamb and Harry Lindon. The out break was one of the most daring ever attempted here. The whole post out of doors enjoying the cool evening air and five guards were in the adjoining room, the five men sawing their way through three iron bars three-quarters of an inch thick and escaped through a window.

PROSPERITY SMILES ON FAIR MELROSE

Rumor That This Progresive Town Will Soon Have Railroad.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN WILL BUILD

With the Assistance of Citizens of Melrose District a Spur Will be Constructed to Newburg—Melrose's Old Railroad Days.

The railroad fever has again struck the town of Melrose and it is rumored that that progressive little town will soon be in direct connection with the outside world by a railroad and the whistle of the locomotive will awake the "denizens of the forest" in early morning and evening late.

The people of Melrose are a progressive set. They are not content with being located off a line of regular and modern communication and have been working with considerable enterprise for the past few years in an effort to secure a railroad connection with either Waldo on the Seaboard Air Line, or Newburg on the Georgia Southern and Florida. A long time ago Melrose and Green Cove Springs were connected by a little narrow-guage railroad known as the Green Cove Springs and Western, but for some reason the operation of the road did not pay and it was eventually abandoned and went "to the bad" in a great deal less time than was required to construct it. The iron was sold and removed, the tracks torn up and the road was no more.

Among the promoters of this road was Dr. Vogelbach of Pennsylvania, an enterprising citizen who came to Florida for his health and settled at Melrose. Being a shrewd business man, he felt that the venture would pay, realizing that Melrose was the geographical center of the State and at that time, as now, a most progressive village. Dr. Vogelbach possibly was enthused by imaginary buzzing of saws, ringing of the blacksmith's hammer, visions of volumes of smoke from the stacks of various factories, etc., because he felt in his heart that Melrose was a coming town. The Doctor himself "planted" nearly fifty thousand dollars in the venture of the Green Cove Springs and Western and induced other friends, capitalists, to invest with him.

The construction of the road and all its affairs were left entirely to the management of Dr. Vogelbach, and it must be said to his credit that he performed his work well and faithfully. After a considerable time the road was completed, and was operated for several years, but apparently without profit, as the iron and the locomotives were eventually sold for scrap iron.

But this has no bearing on the present time. This was a long time ago, when there was really no assured reasonable connection out of Green Cove Springs, and passengers preferred to risk the little steamer and the Waldo connection of the then F. C. & P. Railroad. The Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad has since been constructed from Palatka to Macon, and is operating a first-class and reliable service. When a passenger leaves Melrose by rail for Newburg, to which place it is intended to build, he has a most reasonable assurance, unless some accident occurs, that he is going to get out on time. This will be a great inducement for him to take the all-rail route, especially since the boat connection is now uncertain, owing to the continued low water.

Responsible parties state that the Georgia Southern and Florida Railroad, in conjunction with the citizens of Melrose, will soon build a spur into that town, which is only three miles from the main line of the Georgia Southern. This will give Melrose excellent connections, and we may look for that progressive town to grow and flourish as the green bay tree when this is done.

The joint board located the school the deaf and blind at St. Augus-

A delegation from Lake City was nt and presented a resolution ted by the city council of Lake requesting that the State Board ducation convey to a board of es named in the resolution the property at Lake City compris-Foster Hall, thirty acres of land the equipment in lieu of the 00 provided for by the Buckman bill, to be used for the establishment of a technological institute at Lake City.

"Major A. B. Small, Frank Clark of Lake City, and Hon. George W. Wilson and Hon. H. H. Buckman of Jacksonville, appeared before the board advocating the acceptance of Lake City's proposition.

ANOTHER FIGHT ON FREE PASSES

Bill Will Again Come Before Present Legislature.

Atlanta, July 25—Interest in the session of the house of representative today will be heightened by the fact that Mr. Hall, of Bibb, will make his motion to reconsider the action of the house in defeating the anti-free pass bill, of which he is the author.

A motion to reconsider is debatable and it will, therefore, to a certain extent reopen the debate on the anti-pass bill. Of course this debate is supposed to be limited to the reasons for and against reconsideration, but such a debate is bound to branch out more or less into reasons why the anti-pass bill should or should not be passed.

There does not appear to be much doubt that the house will vote to reconsider, because a reconsideration requires only a majority of those present and not a constitutional majority. Mr. Hall says he is satisfied that more than a constitutional majority of the house is in favor of the bill, because he has found several who were not present when the vote was taken who will vote for it if it comes up again. Mr. Anderson, of Chatham, leader of the opposition, takes just the other view of the matter, and the same two leaders with their able seconds will probably fight it out again on the floor this morning.

The legislature has four very busy weeks yet before it. The calendar is piled high with general bills, the large majority of which will not get anywhere near to a vote.

The general appropriations bill, the general tax act, both of which must be passed, the new county legislation and a few departmental bills which will demand consideration, are enough to keep the general assembly more than busy during these four weeks, and yet there are many other measures of general importance which will be brought up for consideration as the opportunity arrives.

As a matter of fact, the house will have at least all of the present week for the consideration of any general measures that may come up on the calendar, because neither the appropriations or the tax bill will be ready before the end of the week, and the new county bills will not be reported for at least two weeks yet and perhaps more.

KILLED ON ACCOUNT OF GIRL.

Father and Son Object to Daughter and Sister's Sweetheart.

Roanoke, Va., July 25.—After a joint trial lasting one week the jury in the case of Dr. A. R. Hoback and his son, Fred Hoback, charged with the murder last winter of John R. Jett, at Floyd, Va., late last night returned a verdict acquitting the elder Hoback and finding Fred Hoback guilty of manslaughter, fixing his punishment at eight years in the penitentiary.

Jett was showing attention to a daughter of Dr. Hoback, whose family objected to the match, and when the three men met, Jett drew a knife and young Hoback drew a pistol. In the fight Fred Hoback was cut almost to death by Jett and Jett was shot by Fred Hoback, while the elder Hoback struck Jett on the head.

Jett died immediately. Fred Hoback hovered between life and death for several months. All the parties are prominent in this section.

Had a Big Time.

Mount Vernon Lodge No. 70, Knights of Pythias, had a big time at its regular weekly meeting Tuesday evening, the occasion being refreshments and a smoker, after the regular session of the lodge, at which the Rank of Esquire was conferred upon one candidate.

There were a number of visitors at this meeting, to say nothing of the members of the lodge, with the result that it was one of the largest gatherings of the order since the last district meeting here.

At the close of the lodge refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, followed by fine cigars. During this part of the program many addresses were made "on the good of the order," and among the visitors speaking were W. E. Dow of High Springs Lodge, District Deputy Grand Chancellor, Prof. Arthur Williams of Tallahassee, and J. H. Coffee of Waldo.

The committee of arrangements, and to whom the Knights are indebted, were L. C. Lynch, M. E. Sanders and J. A. Phifer.

SOUTHERN BELL FORCE IS READY

Will Shortly Begin Construction of Long Distance Line.

ARE NOW WAITING ON POLES

Some Delay Has Been Caused in Arrival of This Necessary Adjunct, and as Soon as They are Received Work Will Begin.

J. M. Goodwin, superintendent of construction of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, has arrived in the city with his "gang" and within the next day or two, as soon as poles can be secured, expects to begin work on the long-distance line between this city and Jacksonville.

Mr. Goodwin is one of the most experienced and most valued employes of the construction department of this great corporation. He has been for many years in its employ, working from the bottom up, and is regarded very highly by the management of the Southern Bell as a man who knows his business. He has a force of about 30 men here now and proposes at the earliest moment to begin operations.

There has been several delays in the matter of getting the work started on this long-distance line, principal among which has been the buying of the right-of-way and the securing of poles. The right-of-way has been purchased as far as Starke, however, and a contract has been let for poles. The first poles will not be delivered before the latter part of the present week, when the gang will at once begin the construction. It is calculated that by the time the construction department covers the right-of-way already secured, full arrangements will have been made to complete the work to Jacksonville, connecting with the outside world.

As has already been stated, the Southern Bell does not do things half way. They use only the best of materials, and have a man regularly employed for no other duty than to inspect the poles as they are delivered. If these poles do not come up to the standard they are refused, as they are placed for lasting purposes. Nothing but copper wire of the best quality is used, and all other appurtenances are in proportion.

WILLEFORD ENTERTAINMENT.

Ice Cream Supper and Tableaux Presented for Church Benefit.

The people of Willeford participated in an ice cream supper and tableaux entertainment on the evening of Friday, the 21st inst., which was given for the benefit of the Sunday school, and which was largely attended and proved a great success, both financially and from a standpoint of attendance.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Thomas, after which several striking tableaux were rendered by the young ladies of the neighborhood.

A. G. Masters acted as stage manager, and proved to be most competent in that line.

In all, the affair was quite a success, and those present had a big time.

THE COTTON CROP.

Rust Has Set in, But is Not Serious, and a Fair Yield Expected.

Some farmers from the northern and northwestern sections of the county state that rust is prevalent in those sections, but that it is not severe, and very little loss to the crop will result. The plant is opening rapidly, and many growers will begin picking in a few days.

Indications are that the yield will be about the same as last year, with a slight increase in acreage. The continued drouth during the early summer had a tendency to set the crop back to some extent.
